JSS MODEL UNITED NATIONS CONFERENCE 2017

The third edition of JSS Model United Nations Conference was two day mega event organized in the college premises. Continuing the remarkable legacy of the previous two editions, this event was a phenomenal success.

The opening ceremony was held on the 4 of November 2017. It commenced with welcoming our honourable Chief Guest, Dr. N.H. Siddhalinga swamy AICTE Director E-Governanace, it was followed by the lighting of lamp by the dignitaries.

Our respected Principal, Prof. Gurulingappa M. Patil, enlightened the students with his kind words. He inculcated in them the belief of becoming the future world leaders. The paramount support from our principal, HODs and the faculty was the backbone of this event.

This year's MUN simulated three committees -UNGA with the agenda disarmament of chemical and biological weapons, UNCSW with agenda empowerment of women and the AIPPM with the agenda the status of Rohingya Muslims in India.

The first day of the conference was a learning experience for the delegates the executive board for each committee, guided the delegates to reach substantial conclusion and indulge in gruelling sessions of debate .

The day 2 of the JSSMUN started with the energetic and enticing debate of day 1. The three committees were in full fervour from the past day and points, rebuttals made by the candidates added a new tinge to the agendas and opened various spheres of arguments. As the day progressed, so the committees, moving on to provide a plausible and feasible solution. The participants were eager to provide a constructive stratum to the agenda of the committees.

The closing ceremony was honoured by the presence of our principal (Prof. Gurulingappa M. Patil), JSSATEN. The best delegates of the respective committees were felicitated by the principal, HOD-Humanities and Mr. Ankur Garg.

The two day conference was applauded by the various delegates of different colleges as it gave them a platform to voice up their views, express their opinions and helped them to hone their skills.
